

Black History Month

February 2012

BSU Kickoff Event “What Should Black History Month Mean to Us?”

Guest Speaker – Dr. J. Vincent Lowery
Wednesday, February 1, 3:00 - 4:00pm
Phoenix Room B, University Union

Thursday, February 2

International Education Department Presents -
Historically Black Universities through the National Student Exchange Program.

This program enables UW-Green Bay students to span state, regional, provincial, and cultural borders through study at partner institutions.
12:30 - 1:30pm | American Intercultural Center, University Union

Saturday, February 4

Men's Basketball vs. UW-Milwaukee
7:00pm | Resch Center

Tuesday, February 7

Documentary: The Murder of Emmet Till

Facilitator - Dr. James Coates

In August 1955, Chicago-born African American teenager Emmett Till was brutally murdered by two white men for the crime of whistling at a white woman in Money, MS.

5:00 - 7:00pm | Christie Theatre, University Union

Thursday, February 9

Game Night

6:00 - 10:00pm | American Intercultural Center, University Union

Tuesday, February 14

Lecture: “Crossing Bok Chito:

A Story of Love and Freedom Across Cultures”

Dr. Lisa Poupart

The illustrations throw the reader back to a time when Native Americans and African Americans worked together to achieve freedom and independence.

3:00 - 4:00pm | Alumni Rooms, University Union

Wednesday, February 15

Documentary: Freedom Riders

Guest Speaker - Freedom Rider Hank Thomas

Discussion to follow the documentary.

5:00pm | Christie Theatre, University Union

Thursday, February 16

Panel Discussion: African Americans and Sports

Panelists - Former and Current Athletes, Administrators/Management,
Writers, Historians, and Individuals from the Public
Insight into the players personal views on playing, leaving, and watching sports will be open for discussion.

5:00 - 7:00pm | Christie Theatre, University Union

Friday, February 17

Soul Food Dinner (Art and Soul Café is catering)

Guest Speaker – Brian Wardle, Men's Basketball Coach

Tickets are $5 for UWGB students and $10 for faculty, staff, and community members.

4:00 - 7:00pm | Mauthe Center

Tuesday, February 21

Documentary: Scarred Justice: The Orangeburg Massacre, 1968

Facilitators - Jeffery Willems & Dr. Anton Lewis

African American young men and women challenged persistent forms of discrimination in the South. In Orangeburg, SC, their challenges resulted in the murder of 3 African American students on February 8, 1968.

5:00pm | Christie Theatre, University Union

Thursday, February 23

Harlem Renaissance Day

Faculty, staff and students are invited to join in a day of readings of the works from the Harlem Renaissance.

10:00am - 2:00pm | Common Grounds Coffeehouse, University Union
(Musical Performance at 7:30pm)

Monday, February 27

Documentary: Paris is Burning

Facilitators – Dr. Christine Smith and Miranda Seitz

Jennie Livingston's Paris is Burning chronicles the queer people of color underclass in New York City in the early '80s.

7:00 – 9:00pm | Christie Theatre, University Union

Tuesday, February 28

Phi Alpha Theta Book Discussion

At the Dark End of the Street: Black Women, Rape and Resistance
by Danielle McGuire

3:30pm | American Intercultural Center, University Union

Wednesday, February 29

Closing Panel Discussion

Time TBA | Place TBA

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
GREEN BAY

Sponsored by: Black Student Union, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, College of Professional Studies, History Department, Office of International Education, Residence Life, Austin E. Cofrin School of Business, Phi Alpha Theta Honor Society, Music Department, Human Development, Sexuality and Gender Alliance, Good Times Programing, Office of Student Life, American Intercultural Center, First Nation Studies, Athletics, Academic Staff Committee, Center for History and Social Change, Office of the Chancellor, Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, English Department, Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce - Diversity Committee, Center for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning, Southeast Asian Student Union, and Women of Color

If you have a disability and wish to discuss accomidations, please contact the American Intercultural Center at 920-465-2720